General Information:

Most volunteer shifts are weekly and run 4 hours in length. Other times can be considered after requesting times with the volunteer coordinator. Volunteers should be able to make a total commitment of at least 40 hours over several months to ensure continuity and adequate training.

All volunteers must undergo orientation and training before volunteer service begins. The first 90 days of volunteer service will be considered a provisional period.

This application is for a volunteer position, not a paid employee position. GRMC will run background checks on all prospective volunteers. In order to complete a full background check, prospective volunteers will be required to complete an applicant disclosure.

Volunteers must follow all rules and regulations of GRMC for the hospital and nursing home. All the information concerning the hospital and nursing home patients, residents is strictly confidential. Volunteers will be required to sign a confidentiality agreement before assignment. GRMC may terminate volunteer services at any time for any reason.

Volunteers will be required to take a Tuberculosis (TB) test before beginning service. Detailed information will be provided by the volunteer coordinator.

Submission of this application implies that the applicant agrees to hold harmless GRMC, its employees, directors, officers, trustees or agents from any and all claims and damages that may arise from participation in the volunteer program.
